

March 14, 1926

Dear Mr. Manley,

This is to acknowledge receipt of your last letter and to inform you that I intend to come to Newark on the 29th of March and so be ready to leave with the team on the 30th. This will be much more convenient for me and may prove more so for you.

In the line of equipment I would appreciate it if you could order for me a pair of sliding pads and a dozen cotton undersocks. That will be all that I will need.

Best wishes to Mrs. Manley.
I will be in Newark on the 29th.
I thank you.

Yours truly,
Maxwell Manley.